How to Avoid Paying Interest on Purchases	Your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge you any interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. We will begin charging interest on cash advances and balance transfers on the transaction date.

- How We Will Calculate Your Interest: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases).” See your cardholder agreement for more details.
- Payments: The minimum monthly payment is 2% of the new balance, or $25.00, whichever is greater. If the unpaid interest and fees on the account are greater than the minimum monthly payment, the minimum monthly payment will become that amount. Any amount that is past due or prior minimum payments that were not made will also be added to the minimum monthly payment amount.
- Loss of Introductory APR: You will lose your Introductory APR if your account is two or more cycles delinquent.
- This information is accurate as of 05/24/2022.

† Rewards Points: Merchants who accept Mastercard credit cards have an assigned merchant code that is determined by the merchant or its processor based on the kinds of products and services they primarily sell. GreenState makes every effort to identify relevant merchant codes that fit into one of the bonus points categories of purchases. A purchase will not earn extra bonus points if the merchant’s code is not eligible. In some cases, even though a merchant may sell items that fit within a bonus category, if the merchant does not have a merchant code in that bonus category the purchase will not earn extra points. Purchases made through third-party payment accounts, mobile card readers, mobile wallets or other similar technologies may not qualify for bonus points if the technology is not set up to process the purchase with a merchant code that has been identified as falling within a bonus points category. Rewards Points expire two years from the time to they were earned. Refer to your monthly statement for details.
